

THINK YOUR VOTE WON'T COUNT?

THINK AGAIN.

There has never been a point in our lifetime when an election cycle could severely shape the direction of our country, our business rights, and our freedoms more than this cycle. The 2016 election presents us with two presidential candidates who are vastly different in values, philosophies and beliefs. In addition to the presidential election, other key races are heating up. Do you know where the candidates stand when it comes to your rights and business freedoms?

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) PAC helps you gain a better understanding of the candidates, especially with major business and right to work issues. By conducting personal candidate interviews, implementing grassroots campaigns, and making endorsements, the ABC PAC works to protect and advance the merit shop construction industry.

The old motto of “Get Into Politics, Or Get Out Of Business” still rings true today. With a $25 donation you can join the ABC PAC and learn about the candidates, the issues, and help influence the direction of our country and our industry.

Visit abchouston.org/politics to learn more or join the ABC PAC by completing the form on the reverse of this page.

Do you feel like burdensome rules and regulations are on the rise? Do you feel like the government is over-reaching? Has the Affordable Care Act caused you more headaches and cost you more money? Well, the 2016 Elections are drawing near and it's time to draw a line in the sand. The ABC PAC has been working diligently to vet the men and women running for elected office locally, state-wide and nationally. However, they need your support.

There has never been a better time to get involved with the political process. For as little as $25, you and your co-workers can join one of the nation's most formidable political action committees – the ABC PAC. By joining the ABC PAC, you will be keyed into important news about legislation and elected officials, learning where they stand on the issues of free enterprise and merit shop construction. Make your contribution today.
